SATURDAY, - - - May 18, 1867.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Governor,
HON. EMERSON ETHERIDGE,
OF WEST TENNESSEE.

For Congress,
We are authorized to announce the Hon. J. W. LUTWICH as a candidate for re-election to the United States Congress from the Eighth Congressional District.

For the Legislature.
We are authorized to announce JOHN R. RUFFIN as a candidate for election to the Lower House of the next Legislature of Tennessee from Harland county. Election first Thursday in August, April 18th.

THE CAMPAIGN.

We are desirous that every man in Harland county should have a paper to read during the present political campaign, and now make the following liberal offer, and hope that the public will respond. We will send the Bolivar Bulletin to one address for three months for the sum of one dollar, and all orders for clubs at the following rates: Five copies, three months, for $4; ten copies, same time, for $8; twenty copies, same time, for $12. It is useless to add that the present is fraught with more than uncommon interest to all men who believe in a true republican form of government, for the end condition into which we have been driven by pretended loyalists bears its impress upon the field, the store, the workshop, in fact everything throughout the entire country, but more especially within the borders of our own State, do we see the horrors which fanaticism has made upon liberty and independence. We ask our friends to aid us in this work, and it shall be our purpose to print and publish for the benefit of the masses, for the triumph of Conservatism, all that is possible for a weekly paper to contain. Send in the names as early as possible, as it is desirable that the campaign clubs should commence on the first Saturday in June. Payment must be made in advance.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

It is our positive knowledge that certain parties who do not fellowship with the great Conservative party of this State, are striving, by evasions and assertions, to make it appear that they cannot, without exceeding danger to their life and limbs, publicly vindicate their characters before the people of Harland. The whole thing is a libel upon our people, and there does not exist the least reason why any man, rich or poor, military or civil, radical or what not, cannot with impunity come among our people and say what he has to say. Mobs and lynch law are utterly unknown here, and he who intimates that it would be unsafe for any man, be he who it may, to dwell in, or cross and recross Harland county at will, intimates what he must know to be void of truth. If there are any who desire to come here, we say, in behalf of this community, let them come, for we know that they will be protected. There is no lawlessness here, and it is fully for persons to strive to make it appear otherwise.

Release of Jefferson Davis.

Lo, Life and Liberty! Alas! The day of the great struggle is over! The news that flashed over the wires on last Monday caused many a heart to beat with joy, for it announced that the last single captive to millions in war had at last been allowed the privilege of breathing the pure air that God gave to man. Though Jefferson Davis walks his native soil with a bond of $10,000 upon his shoulders, he is comparatively free. No longer do his enemies charge him with the heinous crime of assassination; no longer does the iron chain clank beneath his feeble tread; no longer does he feed upon the tainted atmosphere of a modern "La Tour de Nesle," for the iron heart of revenge has been compelled to yield by the force of popular sentiment. He may or may not be tried upon a charge of treason, but we are strongly of the opinion that he was required to give bail simply because he has not suffered enough to satisfy the capacious maw of radical tyranny. Mr. Davis occupies rooms at the Spottwood House, Richmond, Va. He is visited daily by large numbers of old friends.

DEPLORABLE.

Kelly, the Pennsylvania Congressman, who spoke in Memphis a short time since, and who is making a political tour of the late rebellious States; so inflamed the passions of a portion of the citizens of Mobile, Ala., by his ill-timed remarks while making a speech to them on the 14th inst., that an effort was made to force him from the stand. During the melee, many shots were fired, several persons killed and many wounded. Kelly was dragged from the stand and rescued by his friends. This is to be deplored, and will bring down additional hardships upon our entire people. Let us shun violence and bloodshed. Such a course will be productive of no good to us or our cause. Let peace, peace, peace be our motto.

WE NEED IT.

We hope the readers of the Bulletin, especially those who are indebted to us for Advertising or subscriptions, will read this appeal. We are in need of every cent that is due. It is impossible for us to pay cash for materials and labor without we have the money. If those who are owing us will come forward and settle they will do a great favor, one that will be appreciated. We dislike to dun our patrons, but circumstances compel such a course.

CIVIL WAR IN TENNESSEE.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says, under date of the 6th inst.:
The President is being petitioned by the citizens of Tennessee to disarm the militia in that State, by directing that the ten thousand stand of arms furnished by a resolution of Congress be placed in arsenals in lieu of being kept in what they term "active service." Unless this is done, it is declared that there will be civil war in that State.
We have some curiosity to know what junta of scared fools have been bothering the President about this matter. We need have no fears of civil war in this State. The people have proved themselves law-abiding under the most trying circumstances that have ever surrounded a population matured and reared in civil liberty. Civil war can be inaugurated here only by Brownlow! As he values a whole skin he will not attempt it. In case he should so foolishly as to do it, ten thousand "melish" would scatter like frightened sheep, and he himself would probably be the first to reach Mason and Dixon's line.

We have entered this campaign to dispose of the militia as well as the other feature of Brownlowism, in a more peaceful manner. Such appeals to the National Executive are entirely unwarranted. They should in any event be held in abeyance, while we are endeavoring to remove the evil by other means. Andy Johnson is at best a broken reed on which is rather unsafe to lean. Better fight our own fight.—Nashville Gazette.

We copy the above in order that we may express our hearty concurrence in its sentiments, except such as refer to President Johnson.
As to civil war we agree with you, Mr. Gazette. When we look back upon the legislation of this State for the past two years, we involuntarily shudder, and the only wonder is that a free people, known to be brave, have quietly submitted to the usurpation. That day has passed. Yankee upstarts, cowardly lickspittles, spavined and bandy-legged politicians, and ex-preachers have had their day in Tennessee. That bogus Legislature, composed mainly of gentlemen (?) of a select limit of influence, and a refreshing innocence of ability, has had its day.

We have waited patiently for two years, bearing as best we could with the tyranny, the usurpations, the utterances of the assumed prophet and priest of Tennessee, hoping and praying that in His providence God would send some Ishuriah to touch and unmask the foul monster. That knight has entered the lists, and we venture the prediction that as he lifts the veil that even his cowardly followers will shrink back horrified from the mass of corruption and putrefaction that will meet their gaze. The people of Tennessee are determined on ruling themselves. Ignorant and contemptible—not minorities—but squads, will be kicked from the places which they have usurped and disgraced, and the citizens of Tennessee—the people—will rule.

There is an element in this State, a class of men, who always and under all circumstances, were loyal to the Constitution of the United States and to Tennessee. Men who, unlike Gov. Brownlow, had they been arrested by Confederate authorities and carried to Richmond, would have been unable to give Jeff. Davis such assurances of their loyalty to the Confederate States Government as would have induced him to turn them loose. Men who were born here, men of position and of influence, who despise the pretences and efficiency of the shamless cant of who have been grinding out low for Tennessee since the close of the war. These are the men who have determined that TENNESSEANS SHALL RULE TENNESSEE.

They ask no assistance from rebels or radicals. They stand square on the conservative platform, ready to extend pardon and to reinvest with their rights as citizens all rebels who are willing to come back and live in peace, and determined to kick from their usurped positions jingadier bridle w. j. Grand Junction of Smith et id omne genus, and the militia will fail, utterly fail, to change their determination.

Ten thousand militia, commanded by Brownlow, can't subdue Tennessee. It would be more likely to raise a storm, which would sweep it from the face of the earth. It can't control Tennessee—but one magistrate, acting under authority, can govern whole multitudes. Then let his militia come, say we. They will effect nothing, and a Conservative Legislature and Governor may permit them to take their pains for their pay.

REGISTRATION.—Up to this late hour the office of registration has not been reopened in this county. Of what are the people of Harland county guilty that they should be more cruelly dealt with than all others? What law have they disregarded? Why does the Governor of this State cleave his official hand so tightly about our necks? Has he cause for so doing? If so, that cause has never been made known, and surely it is his office to tell us wherein we have erred. Aside from this, we have been told by those who ought to know, that the office would be opened in a short time, but this is only hearsay. Justice and our rights under the franchise law itself demand that the office of registration should be opened at once. The Governor has no right to tell the true Union men of this county that they shall not vote, neither has he the right, under the law, to withhold his appointing power. The law under which he is acting only gives him the power to order a new registration in case of fraud. Granted that fraud has been practiced in this county, the office has been closed for weeks, and the Governor has already overstepped the bounds of duty, for he should have recommended his former appointee or chosen some other person for the position weeks ago. Our people do not expect favors at the hands of those now in power, but they are entitled to their rights under the laws. The present Governor gains no strength by indicating hardships upon the people without a cause.

Etheridge spoke at Trenton on the 13th, at Brownsville on the 15th, and at Memphis yesterday. He goes from the latter city to East Tennessee. We suppose that by next week we will be enabled to publish a full list of his appointments, and trust that the "people's man," as Brownlow was once pleased to call him, will visit Harland on or about the first day in June or July.

A deficiency of $1,000,000 has appeared in the accounts of the Assistant Treasurer of the United States at New Orleans.

BROWNLOW ENMIENARIES AT WORK.—We are credibly informed that the freedmen in this section are being imposed upon by a set of low-down, radical scoundrels, who are endeavoring to induce them to believe that Emerson Etheridge, the Conservative candidate for Governor, is in favor of the re-establishing of slavery, and that he and his party are pledged to do this thing as soon as possible. Publicly, the opposition to the masses, does not charge conservatism with so foul a slander, for its falsity would be seen and known at once, but the tools of radicalism slip into the kitchen or the field, and by words of pretended friendship, poison the minds of the negroes against their true and tried benefactors. It is a duty our people owe themselves to keep a close look out for the mischief-breeding vagabonds, and they should guard against their inroads upon an honest man's possessions. When you hear that a negro has been talked by a dark lantern radical, and told that the conservative party of this State is pledged to the re-establishing of slavery, go to that negro and tell him that his solicitous friend has told a lie; and more, tell the freedmen everywhere that Etheridge, standing as he does upon the platform of principle adopted at Nashville in convention on the 16th of last month, guarantees to them more of freedom, more of prosperity, more of peace, than the Brownlow clique. With self-conceited, tyrannical laws, made especially for the purpose of a party must be rotten, and that it is imposed upon the ignorant in order to starve off dissent. One thing we may all expect: The Brownlow party of this State will know to any thing that is mean and contemptible—they have done it, and they will do it again. It is our bounden duty to see that our own party is not misled, and that the negro is not misled and tampered with by men who should have been assigned to quarters in the state prison years ago.

THE NEWS.

NEW YORK, May 15.—A Mobile special says that Jude Kelly had been speaking a quarter of an hour, when cries of "Put him down!" were heard, to which Kelly replied, "I tell you, you can't put me down—the 15th infantry are at my back, and if they can't keep peace, the United States army can!" At this moment a rush was made for the platform, whereupon were seated many prominent citizens and reporters for the press, etc. The Chief of Police attempted to arrest the ringleader, and drew a pistol on him. A cry of "Fire!" was then raised, and a perfect fusillade of pistols opened on the crowd occupying the platform. A negro was shot in the head and fell, and Kelly was dragged by his friends out of the range of the fire, and got away unharmed. The firing by this time was directed right and left among the crowd in the street, which was flying in all directions. Several white men, who had taken no part in the attack, were shot. Mr. Goldsmith was killed, and Ledbetter, late Chief of Police, was shot in the forehead. A policeman was shot in the wrist. The whole military force has been ordered out, and posted at various points in the city.

Mr. Davis has no fixed plan for his movements. He will reside in Norfolk.
PARIS, May 14, p. m.—Orders have been sent to various military depots and headquarters throughout the Empire to disband the reserves recently called into service. The President of the Corps Legislatif officially announced to that body that the peace of Europe would not be disturbed.

LUXEMBURG, May 14.—The work of strengthening the fortifications of this city, on which the garrison has for some time been actively employed, has been discontinued by order of the Prussian command.

Think Of It.

TAXPAYERS.—The debt of the State of Tennessee is $26,277,347 1/2!

You have got to pay the interest and the principal.

It takes $300,000 to run the radical machine!

You have got to pay this.

It will take $1,500,000 to pay the loyal militia and put them on a war footing in time of peace.

You have got to pay this snug little sum.

It will take untold thousands to meet the stealings of the radical party.

You have got to foot this bill also.

You may be foolish enough to vote the eye teeth out before their term of office expires should they succeed.

A SPEECHES RADICAL.—The Murfreesboro Monitor is credibly informed that Mullins was the last man who sold a negro slave at public sale in the town of Shelbyville, and that he received Confederate money in payment! Mullins is now professing the greatest friendship for the colored man, and boasts of his record. He is a specimen brick in the temple of Southern Radicalism—and is now trying to ride into Congress on the shoulders of the negro.

A lady fainted a few days since in the cars. A medical gentleman present, who went to her relief, exclaimed: "Has any gentleman a flask of whiskey or brandy?" Over thirty pocket-pistols flashed in the air at once.

Last Sunday evening about 300 of the convicts in the State prison at Nashville made a bold endeavor to revolt. Their designs were frustrated however, and none of them escaped.

White rats with pink eyes are plenty at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.—Post.

White men with black hearts and long fingers are also plenty in the same locality.

Recently the Imperial forces have achieved one or two victories over the Liberals in Mexico. The chances are, however, that Maximilian will be routed.

A memoir of Lt. Gen. Forrest, "His Cavalry and his Campaigns," issued by Col. Pryor and Gen. Jordan, will be sold next month.

A Conservative exchange says the Radical bloodhounds of this State can't understand plain English. Talk dog-latin to them.

Reverend meetings are being held in the Methodist Churches at Athens, Ala., and many accessions are daily and nightly made.
